CORNELL WINS A THRILLER. Yale Oarsmen a Hopeless Third

by a narrow margin with Yale third. At the half the Ithacans and the Tig-At the half the Ithacans and the Tigers were on even terms with Yale a length and a half behind. Princeton hit up the stroke and again led Cornell at the three-quarters mile mark. At the mile the Ithacans drew up on even terms with Princeton and then began a struggle for the lead which never ceased until the shells flashed across the finish line. It was a wonderful duel between the two eights, and the spectators lined along the shore and on observation trains cheered themselves noarse at the spectacle.

Victory in Last Few Strokes. Kongsland, stroke of Cornell, called Kongsland, stroke of Cornell, called for a spurt and his men responded, with the result that at the mile and a half they led by inches. Yale continued to trall behind Princeton. The Tigers rallied and had pulled ahead of the Ithacans at the mile and three-quarter mark, but the Ithacans were not to be denied. In the last few yards the nose of their shell drew ahead of that of Princeton and they crossed the line winners.

AMERICAN THREAD CO. TAKES OPENING GAME

Willimantic Players Landed on May, the Rockville Twirler. (Special to The Bulletin.)

Willimantic, May 28.—A good sized crowd were in attendance at the opening of the American Thread Coming of the American Thread Company's baseball season when they met the All Rockville team. The All Rockvilles proved an easy thing for the local team and were defeated by a score of 18 to 5.

May, the Rockville pitcher, was a cinch for the thread makers who worked him for eighteen safe hits. Adams, of the thread mill team puzzled the visitors who got but five singles. And of the visitors, if the pitching was poor, their fielding was Vale Oarsmen a Hopeless Third in Cayuga Lake Races.

In one of the most thrilling races yet rowed on Cayuga Lake the Cornell varsity eight defeated the oarsmen of Princeton by a scant three feet Saturday offernoon, with Yale a hopeless third, several lengths behind. The crews of Cornell and Princeton fought every inch of the way from starting line to finish over the two-mile course.

The victory of the Ithacans was all the more spectacular because the crew which won was classed almost until the eve of the regatta as the third varsity. It took the place of the eight which was defeated the week before by Harvard.

At the quarter mile Princeton led by a narrow margin with Yale third.

mately $10,000,000. These wide changes reflected recent syndicate op-erations connected with new financing. Today's bond market was irregular on nominal dealings, with total sales (par value) of $1,710,000. The general trend of government issues during the week was lower, declines on call ex-tending from 1-4 to 1-2 of 1 per cent, but with little actual trading.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Putnam, May 27.—For 11 breathless innings, every little nerve, on the backbone of every little fan that saw the game on Tourtellotte field, Putnam Saturday afternoon, had a motion of its own. Probably never has a faster name been played on a Putnam dia frond. For 11 innings Putnam and Woonsocket Nationals played scoreless, air tight, flawless baseball. Putnam, one, also Putnam won, one to nothing. It is the first victory of the season and everybody in Putnam is happy tonight. Woonsocket never faitered and the winning score was the result of clean hitting. Nanning was the first man up for the locals in the eleventh frame. He connected safely for a single. Manning was followed by McDonald, who connected safely for a double that scored Nanning and gave Putnam the victory. Incidentally the hit by McDonald was the longest in the game.

ally the hit by McDonald was the longest in the game.

Putnam had a shade of the advantage all the way. Only two visiting batters hit safely, while Putnam piled up eight saftles for a total of nine bases. Wilson fanned 13 Woonsocket batters, The score:

FAST RACES EXPECTED C. V. Pendleton, Jr., is Signing Up Fast Riders.

Claude V. Pendleton, Jr., of the Con-Claude V. Pendieton, Jr., of the Connecticut Amusement association is confident that Tuesday's race meet at the fairgrounds will show eastern Connecticut and southern Rhode Island the fastest motorcycling that section has seen since the association began, in the fall of 1913, to hold races at East Great Plain. He was out, most of last week, on the warpath for the best riders obtainable. He went to Boston, Providence, Readville, Worcester, Springfield, Hartford and other cities where the motorcycling fraternity is springfield, Hartford and other cities where the motorcycling fraternity is strong. They all wanted to know about the Norwich races, which, ever since the association joined the Federation of American Motorcyclists last year, have come to have a definite place on the motorcycle map.

Mr. Pendiston will be the starter.
